

NOTICE REGARDING CONSUMER CREDIT REPORT PURSUANT TO CONNECTICUT LAW

Enter Client Name (“the Company”) intends to obtain information about you from a consumer credit reporting agency for employment purposes. Thus, you can expect to be the subject of “consumer credit reports” for employment purposes. Such reports may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living. With respect to any consumer credit report from a consumer credit reporting agency, the Company may investigate the information contained in your employment application and other credit information about you. The results of the reports obtained by the Company may be used as a factor in making employment decisions. The source of any consumer credit report will be SecureSearch, 558 Castle Pines Parkway, Castle Rock, Colorado 80108, (866) 891-1954, <https://www.securesearchpro.com>.

The Company intends to obtain a consumer credit report on you for a substantially job-related reason, specifically:

- The job for which you are applying (or if current employee, already occupy) is a managerial position which involves setting the direction or control of a business, division, unit or an agency of a business.
- The job for which you are applying (or if current employee, already occupy) involves access to customers, employees or the employer's personal or financial information other than information customarily provided in a retail transaction.
- The job for which you are applying (or if current employee, already occupy) involves a fiduciary responsibility to the employer, including but not limited to, the authority to issue payments, collect debts, transfer money or enter into contracts.
- The job for which you are applying (or if current employee, already occupy) entitles you to receive an expense account or corporate debit or credit card.
- The job for which you are applying (or if current employee, already occupy) entails access to: (i) confidential or proprietary business information, or (ii) information, including a formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique, process or trade secret that: (a) derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from the disclosure or use of the information; and (b) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy.
- The job for which you are applying (or if current employee, already occupy) entails access to the employer's nonfinancial assets valued at two-thousand five hundred ($2,500) dollars or more, including but not limited to, museum and library collections and to prescription drugs and other pharmaceuticals.
